

Level 3 Award in Assessment (Assessors course)

Thank you for your enquiry regarding our Level 3 Assessors course.

This course allows you to assess any qualification that you have achieved, i.e. Dental Nursing, Hairdressing, and Beauty etc. You will need to be able to assess two learners in your own area of expertise and find your own placement to do so. We can often offer assistance within the field of Dental Nursing, if you live within the North West.

Our Assessors course is run on a one to one basis throughout the year; this enables start dates to be adapted to your own personal needs.

Assessment:

The course for the first 2 units (301 and 302) Unit 301 is all answering questions so can be completed by email, unit 302 is all gathering evidence of your assessing the two learners.

The course must be completed within an approximate 8 month time frame from your start date.

Requirements:

- An appropriate level of Literacy at a minimum of Level 2
- Be able to communicate clearly in assignments
- Be computer literate

The cost of the course is just £450 and comes with full tutorial support and all relevant course materials. (this is non refundable or transferable once course materials have been printed and sent)

I have attached an enrolment form this email which details further information for you.

To enrol on the courses, please complete the enrolment pack and return to the email address below along with the full course fee. On receipt of enrolment and course fee, we will then send out your course materials and personal assessor details.

I hope this information helps.
