

Level 3 Award in Education and Training (formally PTTLs) 1 day micro teach

Thank you for your enquiry regarding the Level 3 Award in Education & Training (formally known as PTTLs) 1 day micro teach course. The course fee is £300 and comes with full tutorial support and all course materials required. (This is non refundable or transferable once course materials have been printed and sent) - Please note, if you do not live on UK mainland, there will be a £25 surcharge to cover postage costs.

To start this course you must be competent in the subject that you want to teach, i.e. Dental nursing, beauty, hairdressing, etc.

This course is run on a one to one basis throughout the year and start dates can be adapted to your personal needs although you are expected to complete the course within approximately 9 months.

Please note: although this course is completed via correspondence, you will be required to attend our training centre for a one day micro teach (lesson). Our training centre is located on Bridge Street in the Bolton Town Centre. The date of your one day micro teach will be prearranged with yourself to ensure that we are able to schedule it around your personal workplace commitments. Due to Covid some considerations have been given by City & Guilds, so a visit might not be essential – please ask if this is an issue.

Please find attached an enrolment form for this course which details further information for you.

I hope this information helps.
